Posted on February 26, 2011 by John Salmon. "The family is a haven in a heartless world." ~Attributed to Christopher Lasch. Each morning my family leaves our home and enters the discouraging, oppressive world of work or school. That may sound harsh, but true none the less...just watch the news. Students enter the "sacred halls of education" through metal detectors and security guards to sit in classrooms as canine police sniff out lockers for paraphernalia.
