Watching And Wanting Housemates Book

Watching and Wanting is an uncomplicated, quick, and sexy-as-fuck read. While the time span of the novel doesn't last long enough for the guys to get a happily-ever-after, their happy-for-now ending is good enough, because they've already worked past their stumbling blocks and they're obviously a perfect match for each other.

Watching and Wanting (Housemates #4) by Jay Northcote read ...

Watching and Wanting is one of my favorite books by Jay, it is very erotic and sensual, the connection between Jude and Shawn building slowly. Like all the other books in the series, they first find the physical comparability out of need/lust/curiosity and then develop deeper emotions as they spend more time together.

Watching and Wanting (Housemates #4) | It's About The Book

I'm happy to announce that Watching and Wanting is now available in Audiobook format. I had to find a new narrator, as sadly Mark Steadman is no longer doing narration work. But when Lewis Carter auditioned, I liked his voice for this series immediately. If you decide to give it try, I hope you enjoy it!
