Why do smart people make stupid decisions? There are two ways of looking at it. The first is that smart people tend to hold higher offices in an organization and are therefore in a position to make important decisions, which are magnified within the organization. When a CEO makes a bad decision, everyone in the organization knows about it.

Why Smart People Make Stupid Decisions

Why Do Smart People Make Stupid Arguments? I'm always puzzled about why smart people make (and believe) such stupid arguments. We see this all the time, of course, in political discourse and family disagreements, not to mention department meetings, but since my field is religious studies I hear it the most in connection with the great religions of the world.
